How to Respond when Law Enforcement Arrives

- Remain calm, and follow officer's instructions
- Immediately raise hands and spread fingers
- Keep hands visible at all times
- Avoid making quick movements toward officers such as attempting to hold on to them for safety
- Avoid pointing, screaming, and/or yelling
- Do not stop to ask officers for help or direction when evacuating, just proceed in the direction from which officers are entering the premise

Information to Provide Law Enforcement

- Location of the victims and the active shooter
- Number of shooters, if more than one
- Physical description of shooter(s)
- Number and type of weapons held by the shooter(s)
- Number of potential victims at the location

Recognize Signs of Potential Workplace Violence

An active shooter may be a current or former employee. Alert the HR department if you believe an employee exhibits potentially violent behavior. Indicators of potentially violent behavior may include the following:
• Increased use of alcohol and/or illegal drugs

- Unexplained increase in absenteeism, and/or vague physical complaints
- Depression/Withdrawal
- Increased severe mood swings, and noticeably unstable or emotional responses
- Increasingly talks of problems at home
- Increase in unsolicited comments about violence, firearms, and other dangerous weapons and violent crimes
